

Month	Topic	Learning Objective
April	Self-Introduction & Introducing Others	Develop confidence in self-introduction and introducing peers
May	Active Listening: Listening to a Short Story & Answering Questions	Enhance listening skills and comprehension
	Framing & Answering 'Wh' Questions	Understand and use 'Wh' questions correctly
	Describing Objects	Improve vocabulary and descriptive skills
July	Writing a Short Paragraph on 'My Favorite Place'	Practice paragraph writing with personal expression
	Picture-Based Storytelling Activity	Enhance creativity and storytelling abilities
	Role-Play: Asking for Directions	Practice role-playing and direction-giving skills
August	Expressing Likes & Dislikes	Express personal preferences in a structured manner
	Writing and Speaking a Short Dialogue Between Two Friends	Develop conversational and dialogue writing skills
September	Show & Tell: Describing an Object from Home	Improve public speaking and descriptive skills
	Role-Play: Ordering Food at a Restaurant	Practice ordering food and social communication skills
October	Listening to an Audio Clip & Retelling It	Develop active listening and summarization skills
October	Speaking Confidently in Front of the Class (Mini Speech)	Build confidence in public speaking
November	Telephone Etiquette: Making & Receiving Calls	Learn basic telephone conversation etiquette
	Writing a Thank-You Letter to a Friend or Teacher	Practice writing gratitude letters

December	Acting Out a Short Skit in Groups	Enhance teamwork and acting skills
	Listening & Following Multi-Step Instructions	Develop following instructions skills
January	Writing & Presenting a Short News Report	Improve writing and news presentation skills
February	Speech & Storytelling Competition + Fun Word Games	Engage in fun learning through speech and storytelling

Methodology	Learning Outcome
Pair and group introductions, interactive games	Students can introduce themselves and others fluently
Listening to a story and answering guided questions	Students can listen carefully and respond appropriately
Q&A sessions, practice worksheets	Students can ask and answer 'Wh' questions correctly
Descriptive games, object-based discussion	Students can describe objects with proper details
Guided writing exercises, peer feedback	Students can write structured paragraphs with clarity
Storytelling with visual prompts	Students can narrate creative stories with confidence
Role-play exercises with maps and directions	Students can ask for and give directions effectively
Structured sentence formation exercises	Students can express likes/dislikes clearly
Dialogue creation and role-play	Students can hold basic conversations fluently
Show and tell activity	Students can describe objects with ease
Simulated restaurant ordering scenario	Students can order food in English confidently
Listening to audio clips and summarizing	Students can listen and summarize key information
Mini-speech presentation	Students can speak in front of an audience confidently
Role-play with mock phone calls	Students can make and receive calls appropriately
Letter-writing exercises	Students can write thank-you letters effectively

Group skit preparation and performance	Students can act and perform a short skit
Following multi-step verbal instructions	Students can follow multi-step instructions
News reporting simulation	Students can write and present a simple news report
Speech competition, storytelling games	Students enjoy learning through interactive speech games