Achievements

RHYTHMS OF VALOR: MS. SHALINI'S CULTURAL CONTRIBUTION

We are proud to share that Ms. Shalini Darmwal, the dedicated dance educator of LPSSS Senior Wing, has recently authored a remarkable book titled Chholiya. Rooted in the ancient martial traditions of the Kumaun region, the book is a tribute to the enduring spirit of this dynamic art form. Through rich narratives and intricate detailing, Ms. Shalini explores Chholiya not just as a dance, but as a living legacy of warrior culture—brought to life through synchronized swordplay, rhythmic movements, and traditional attire. Her work traces Chholiya's evolution from battlefield rituals to its role in modern-day weddings, festivals, and religious processions. The book delves into its performance techniques, emotional depth, and symbolic power, offering readers an immersive understanding of a tradition that is slowly fading. With this publication, Ms. Shalini makes a compelling appeal for the revival and preservation of a cultural treasure, seamlessly blending scholarship with her deep-rooted passion for Indian folk dance.

1. Can you please introduce yourself and share how long you've been a part of this school?

I'm Himanshu Chand, currently in Grade 11. I joined Lotus Petal in 2017. Back then, I struggled with confidence and had a fear of speaking on stage. But today, after years of guidance, I've overcome those fears and have proudly taken on leadership roles like School Captain and now Head Boy.

What makes Lotus Petal truly special is the way it nurtures not just students — but human beings. It provides free, quality education to children who may not have had the opportunity otherwise, and uplifts them with love, dignity, and purpose. The teachers don't just teach subjects — they teach values. That's rare.

3. In what ways has your school journey helped prepare you for the future — academically, personally, or emotionally?

Lotus Petal helped me grow in all aspects — from academics to personality. It built my English skills, self-belief, and ability to speak and lead with confidence. This school gave me more than just education — it gave me purpose, confidence, and endless support

4. Looking back, what is one school memory that you will always cherish?

When Ms. Kiran Bedi visited our school and I got the chance to ask her a question .It was a proud and unforgettable moment for me.

5. Now that you've become the Head Boy, how does it feel to take on this role? What does it mean to you?

Becoming Head Boy is a proud moment and a big responsibility. It means leading by example, giving back to my school, and inspiring others like I was once inspired.
