This gracious response inspires us to continue our dedicated efforts in shaping young minds with care, integrity, and excellence. We sincerely thank all parents for believing in our vision and entrusting us with their children's educational journey.

We deeply value the trust and confidence shown by our parent community. This support motivates us to uphold our commitment to quality education and holistic development.

FIRELESS COOKING

CLASS COMPETITION

“Little chefs, big flavors, zero fire!”

On December 5th, our classroom became a charming mini kitchen, where eager young chefs from Nursery to Grade 2 whipped up healthy delights like bhelpuri and chocolate bread cake. The event was filled with joy and laughter, imparting valuable lessons about the significance of healthy eating and transforming everyday ingredients into scrumptious meals.

With the warm guidance and encouragement of our judge, Sangeeta Didi (Emerald Staff Supervisor), the children confidently displayed their creativity, teamwork, and growing life skills while taking pride in their efforts. The joy of the day doubled when students happily shared their homemade food with teachers and friends, spreading smiles and positivity all around. As the little chefs enjoyed the fruits of their hard work, the Junior Wing corridors echoed with happiness and excitement, creating a vibrant, festive atmosphere that truly made the day memorable and meaningful for everyone involved.

FAMILY DAY

LPSSS First Ever Family Day!

“Hand in hand, hearts in tune—family makes every day bloom.”

The Lotus Petal Foundation joyfully celebrated its first Family Day on December 6, 2025, symbolizing unity and happiness for all participants. The event highlighted the importance of fostering an inclusive environment that nurtures a sense of belonging and togetherness, while honoring the unique diversity each family contributes to the community.

Family Day was a truly joyous occasion for our changemakers, brimming with laughter, excitement, and shared pride. Opening our workplace to our loved ones filled us with immense happiness, as the presence of families brought new life to familiar spaces. The children’s faces sparkled with delight, and their laughter echoed through the school, creating an atmosphere of pure warmth and cheer. This beautiful experience reminded us of the profound fulfillment that comes from blending our professional purpose with our personal bonds. We are deeply grateful for such a memorable and uplifting day.

GARTNER VOLUNTEERS

A Joyful visit by Gartner volunteers!

Moments of Kindness and Joy

The visit from the Gartner volunteers fostered a heartwarming atmosphere brimming with smiles, laughter, and excitement. As the UKG students joyfully received their soft toys, their delight was clearly reflected in their enthusiastic expressions. This thoughtful initiative not only brought immense happiness to the children but also encouraged the values of sharing, kindness, and compassion. Such meaningful acts are vital in creating cherished memories and nurturing young hearts, laying the foundation for a compassionate future.

On December 11th, wonderful Gartner volunteers visited the school, bringing delightful soft toys for our UKG students. As soon as the children received these gifts, their faces brightened with sheer excitement and joy. The smiles and laughter created heartwarming moments that will be treasured for years. This kind gesture brought immense happiness and made the day truly special for our young learners. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to the Gartner volunteers for their generosity and kindness. Your compassion and efforts have made a significant impact and created unforgettable memories for our students.

CHRISTMAS ACTIVITY

A fun activity! Hand print Christmas tree!

On 12th December, the Nursery classrooms were filled with festive excitement as children took part in a Christmas-themed creative activity. Using their handprints, the young learners collaboratively created a vibrant Christmas tree, symbolizing how individual uniqueness comes together in harmony. This joyful exercise encouraged creativity, cooperation, and fine motor development while introducing children to the spirit of unity and celebration.

Tiny Elves at Work: Our Santa Cap Celebration

On December 13th, the activity became even more vibrant and engaging as children adorned the artwork with colorful Santa caps, carefully and thoughtfully positioning each piece themselves. This interactive experience not only heightened sensory awareness, concentration, and confidence but also encouraged emotional expression, creativity, and social connections among the children. The joyful ambiance showcased our dedication to holistic early childhood education through meaningful, hands-on learning experiences that foster growth and development.

COLORS AND SHAPES

A students' workshop

On December 18, 2025, a workshop titled “Colours and Shapes” was held for the Pre-Primary Wing. This engaging session introduced young learners to fundamental concepts through interactive activities, ensuring enjoyable and impactful learning. On the same day, a Stress-Management Workshop took place for Primary Wing students, teaching them simple stress-management techniques. The students listened attentively and participated actively.

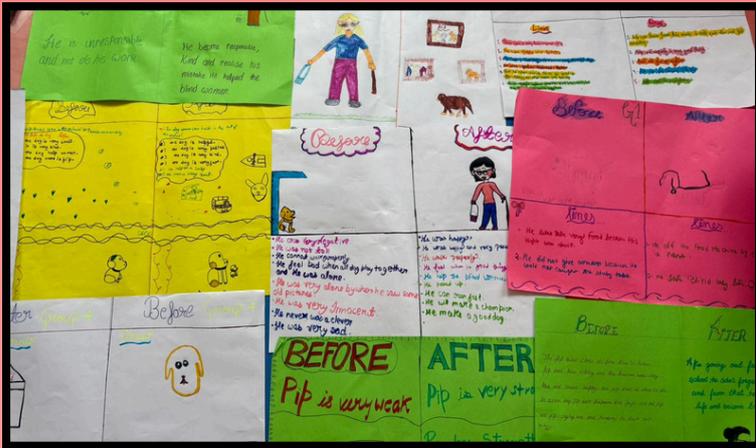

with great enthusiasm throughout both sessions. The activities encouraged learning by doing, enabling students to grasp concepts effectively while enjoying the process. The workshops were engaging, impactful, and contributed significantly to the holistic development of the students.

MOVIE ANALYSIS

A Students' Workshop

On December 18th, a successful workshop on analyzing the short film “Pip the Dog” was held for Grades III to V students. Led by Ms. Tamanna, the Primary Wing Counselor, it aimed to enhance critical thinking and observation skills. Students watched selected clips and analyzed Pip's character traits, emotions, relationships, and themes like friendship, courage, loyalty, and perseverance.

Age-appropriate literary concepts, such as characterization and theme identification, were presented in a captivating way. Students engaged in discussions, completed worksheets, and collaborated in groups. They also showcased their understanding creatively through drawings and character sketches, highlighting personal connections to the story.

The workshop offered a valuable learning experience, encouraging students to observe closely, think critically, and express ideas with confidence. Overall, the session was enriching and enjoyable, leaving students inspired and excited about learning through stories and films.

ASSORTED EXAM

Assorted Exam for Junior Wing!

On December 19th, an Assorted Exam was held in the Junior Wing for students from Nursery to Grade 5, adopting a holistic assessment approach. This evaluation combined questions from all subjects into one paper, ensuring learning was assessed as a connected journey. Each question was linked, helping learners connect concepts and apply knowledge across subjects. This format encouraged critical thinking and confidence over memorization. Presented in a child-friendly manner, the exam nurtured curiosity and independent thinking. Overall, it effectively promoted integrated learning and conceptual clarity, creating a positive assessment experience.

The assessment also provided teachers with valuable insights into each child's learning progress, helping them identify strengths as well as areas that may need further support. By observing how students approached integrated questions, educators were able to better understand individual learning styles and developmental needs. This reinforced the school's commitment to continuous, learner-centered assessment practices that support holistic growth in the early years.

UNIFY DOTS

A Student Workshop

“Little hands, Big creativity.”

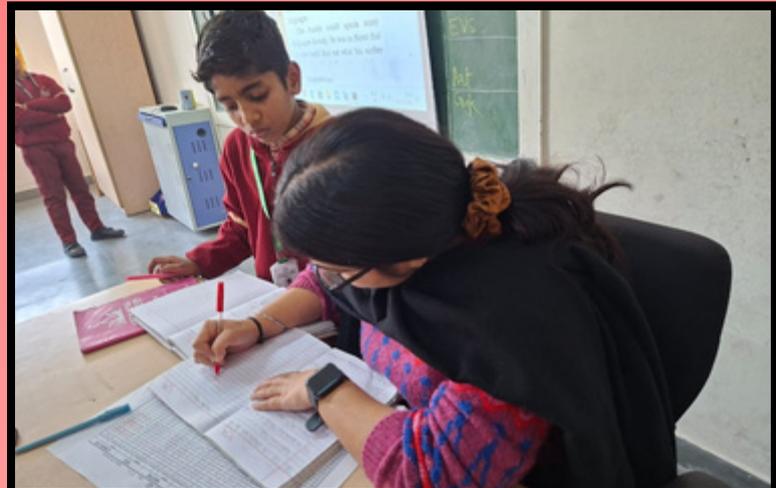

On December 19th, employees from Unify Dots brought a delightful paper plate art activity to the Primary Wing. Renowned for their ability to brighten the days of our young learners, the volunteers engaged with the students of Class 3A during this creative session.

The students enthusiastically participated in painting their paper plates, showcasing their creativity through vibrant colors and imaginative designs. The event was not only joyful but also interactive, allowing students to hone their artistic talents while basking in the cheerful company of the volunteers. This engaging activity fostered a lively atmosphere and left the students with joyful and unforgettable memories.

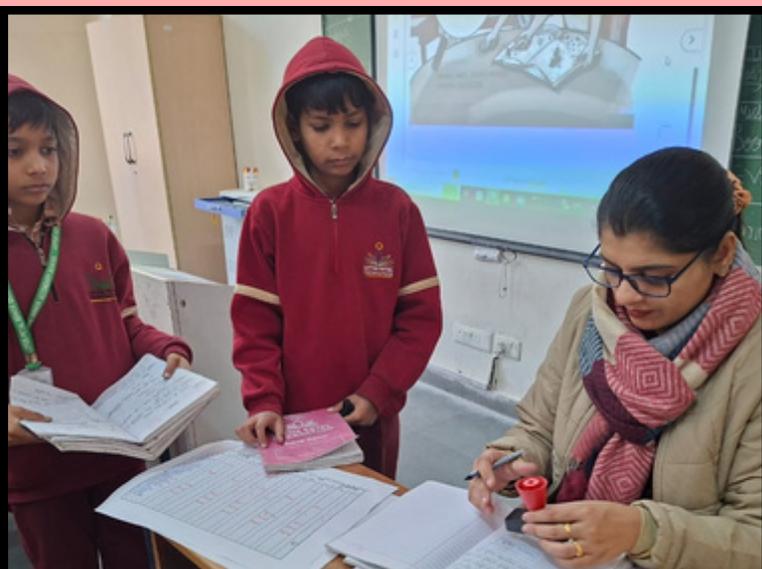

NOTEBOOK CHECKING

Strengthening Learning Through Regular Notebook Checking

Regular notebook checking helps teachers assess students' understanding, provide constructive feedback, and ensure consistency in learning. It encourages neatness, accuracy, and conceptual clarity while guiding students towards continuous improvement.

On December 19th, thorough notebook checking and stamping occurred in the Junior Wing, focusing on regularity, neatness, completion, and adherence to guidelines. Constructive feedback was given to teachers, emphasizing strengths and areas for improvement, particularly in handwriting, presentation, correction, and consistency. A comprehensive report was compiled for future reference, playing a vital role in upholding academic standards and enhancing classroom practices.

AD MAD

An Interhouse competition

On December 20th, young actors from Nursery to Grade 2 eagerly participated in the Inter-House Ad Mad Show, a joyous celebration of creativity and confidence. The little performers enchanted everyone with their spirited acts, displaying imagination and communication skills. Dressed in adorable costumes, the children cleverly presented advertisements highlighting various modes of transport and their importance in everyday life.

Each performance showcased meticulous preparation, creativity, and collaboration. The students confidently presented before the esteemed judge, Ms. Inderjeet Kaur, captivating everyone with their expressive gestures and infectious enthusiasm. This activity served as an excellent platform for students to enhance their public speaking skills and stage confidence. By merging learning with creativity and enjoyment, the Inter-House Ad Mad Show transformed into a joyful, enriching, and unforgettable experience for participants and spectators.

CRAFT COMPETITION

An Interhouse Competition

On December 20th, students from Grades 3 to 5 participated in the Inter-House Craft Competition, turning the school into a creative hub. The event focused on crafting items from waste and recycled materials, encouraging innovative, environmentally friendly thinking. Using materials like brown paper, twigs, waste cardboard, and colorful sheets, the children created impressive items. Their work illustrated how everyday waste can become meaningful and functional art, enhancing their creativity and problem-solving skills.

The crafts were intricately designed to celebrate Christmas, featuring vibrant themes, colors, and symbols. Each piece showcased careful planning, creativity, and the unique touch of each child. The joyful spirit of Christmas shone through the students' creations, making the exhibition lively and uplifting. This activity fostered awareness of environmental issues among the students. They learned the significance of reducing waste and creatively reusing materials, grasping that protecting the environment can start with small actions. The competition instilled responsible, eco-friendly values in the children. Overall, the Inter-House Craft Competition was an inspiring learning experience, promoting creativity, teamwork, and confidence.

ECO CLUB ACTIVITY

Eco Club Activity for Primary Wing

The activities were designed to create environmental awareness in an engaging and meaningful way. The Eco Quiz encouraged students to think critically about topics such as conservation of water, pollution, waste management, biodiversity, and sustainability. Students participated enthusiastically, showcasing their knowledge, quick thinking, and teamwork.

The Green Storytelling Competition provided a creative platform for students to express their thoughts on nature, trees, animals, and environmental protection. Through stories, posters, picture cards, and visuals, students beautifully conveyed messages about saving the Earth and living in harmony with nature. Both activities helped develop creativity, communication skills, confidence, and environmental responsibility. The Eco Club initiative inspired students to adopt eco-friendly habits and become responsible caretakers of the environment.

On December 20th, the Primary Wing of our school successfully conducted a lively Eco Club activity that featured an engaging Eco Quiz Competition and a captivating Green Storytelling Competition for enthusiastic students in Classes 3 to 5.

DELOITTE

DELOITTE VOLUNTEER SESSION

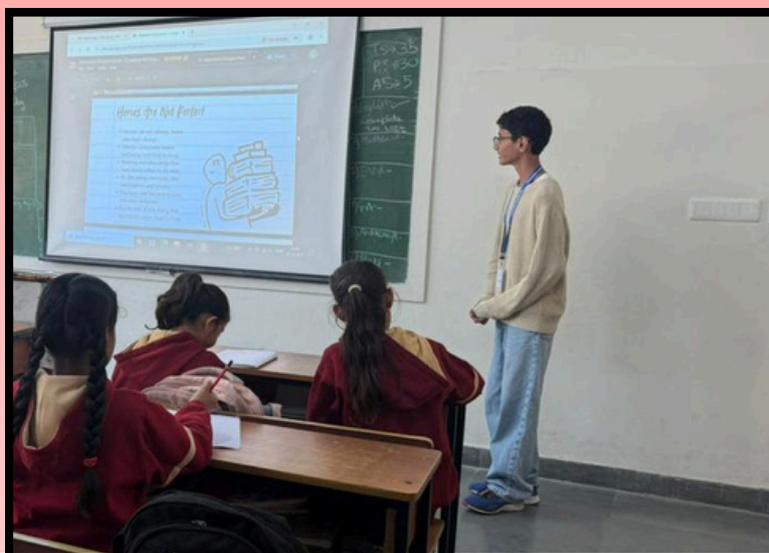

On December 20th, Deloitte hosted a meaningful volunteer session aimed at promoting healthy engagement with Primary Wing students. The event was interactive, seamlessly combining education with fun. Our students were enthusiastic participants in activities and discussions, contributing to a lively and impactful experience. They gained valuable insights while enjoying the process, acquiring essential life skills in a nurturing environment. The passion and dedication of the Deloitte volunteers created an uplifting atmosphere, leaving a lasting impression. We sincerely thank Deloitte for their commitment to developing young minds. Your support truly made this session unforgettable.

CREATIVE WRITING

Workshop for students

Ritvik, a ninth-grade aspiring writer, hosted a Creative Writing Workshop for Grade 4A students on December 23rd and 24th. He meticulously organized and executed the event, creating lesson plans, worksheets, and presentations. Ritvik introduced the fundamentals of storytelling, guiding participants through key story elements: The Hero, The Problem, The Adventure, and The Ending, using straightforward, age-appropriate examples.

Ritvik's step-by-step method enabled young learners to understand storytelling concepts easily. The workshop was interactive, encouraging students to engage in discussions, ask questions, and share ideas. Ritvik fostered creativity and independent thought as students crafted their own short stories with his support. His calm and inspiring teaching style created a positive learning atmosphere where students felt confident expressing their thoughts. Ritvik's maturity, clarity, and exceptional instructional skills surpassed his grade level, making the workshop an unforgettable experience for everyone involved.

CHRISTMAS

Special Assembly

“At Christmas, we celebrate not what we have, but the love we share.”

On 24th December, our school celebrated a joyful Christmas and New Year Special Assembly ahead of the winter break from 25th December to 12th January. Christmas is a much-awaited festival for children, and the school campus came alive with festive cheer, excitement, and smiling faces.

The assembly was filled with joy and a vibrant festive spirit, making it a truly memorable occasion, thanks to the students' enthusiasm. Our Chief Guest, Ms. Monika Walia, inspired and motivated everyone present with her words. Aditi and Darshan from Class 4A skillfully anchored the program, focusing on the Sustainable Development Goals and emphasizing their importance. Cultural performances brought an extra layer of magic, featuring nursery students dancing to “Jingle Bells,” LKG presenting a Christmas tune, Grade 2 sharing carols, and Grades 4 and 5 performing a skit centered on Christmas and kindness.

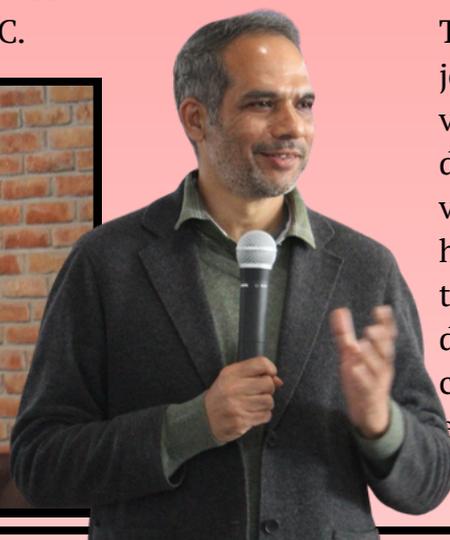

CHRISTMAS

Special Assembly

Our respected Principal, Ms. Srividya Shridhar, shared her thoughts on the true spirit of Christmas. This was followed by address from our Founder, Mr. Kushal Raj Chakravorty, who spoke about the essence of Christmas and shared his fond memories of past celebrations. Adding special meaning to the celebration, students who secured the highest marks in their respective classes in the First Term were honoured with bicycles on this special day, inspiring all learners to strive for excellence. A vote of thanks was delivered by Abhinash from class 5C.

The assembly concluded on a joyful note with a delightful visit by Santa Claus, who danced, distributed candies, visited all the floors, and spread happiness everywhere. Adding to the festive joy, our generous donor sent gifts for our little champs, bringing smiles to every face.

IN-HOUSE CBSE TRAINING

Competency-Based Teaching of English Language and Literature

The in-house CBSE training on English Language and Literature, led by our Vice Principal, Ms. Kanupriya Mohan, proved to be an immensely valuable professional development session for our teaching staff. Held on 29th December, the workshop aimed at enhancing classroom practices and emphasized creating a more engaging, effective, and student-centered teaching-learning process, in accordance with CBSE guidelines.

encouraging active participation through collaborative tasks, group discussions, and engaging exercises. Music added vibrant energy to the experience, demonstrating innovative techniques to enhance language skills, pronunciation, and expression. Key highlights included vocabulary enhancement and the use of literature to foster critical thinking and creativity. Ms. Mohan's insightful guidance, practical strategies, and approachable demeanor inspired educators to reflect on their teaching methods and adopt innovative practices. The training concluded on an uplifting note, underscoring the importance of continuous learning and creativity.

FIRE SAFETY

Workshop

“Preparedness today ensures safety tomorrow.”

On December 29th, our school hosted a Fire Safety Training Workshop led by an external expert to enhance safety awareness and emergency readiness. The session covered essential fire safety protocols and practical response techniques, offering guidance on selecting and using appropriate fire extinguishers. Participants benefited from a live demonstration and hands-on practice, boosting their confidence and understanding.

Our Fire Marshals and other changemakers actively participated in the practice session and successfully operated the fire extinguishers under expert guidance. Their involvement enhanced teamwork and readiness during emergencies. The workshop was highly informative and practical. It reinforced the importance of quick action, awareness, and responsibility, ensuring that our school remains a safe and well-prepared environment for everyone.
